

Module 2 | 405 hours/lesson

Front-End Development

George Novelli Tarlazis

The person that has received this certification has successfully completed the Front-End Development module that has a 380 lesson hours workload. During this module, the following skills were learned: JavaScript, TypeScript, Automated Testing, React (with an emphasis on class and functional components, states, events and component styling), React Router, Redux, Context API & Hooks, and Agile. Additionally, the individual completed 25 lesson hours of Soft Skills content, encompassing concepts and techniques that encourage creative problem solving in a team and tools for creating a personal portfolio.

João Daniel Nunes Duarte
CTO

